Duration: ½ Day, 9.30am - 1pm (TBC)

Fees: £100 (subsidised by the Teaching School Funding, discounts available for group bookings & HMAT schools/TS alliance partners)

Target Audience

This CPD session has been designed with all secondary classroom teachers in mind. This course is also appropriate for curriculum and middle leaders and teachers who have responsibility for the Teaching and Learning of English at secondary school level.

Programme outline

This session will look to explore how to secure Level 4 outcomes for learners and build progress to achieve Level 5 and 6 in the AQA English Literature examinations. Specific focus will be given to tackling the challenging requirements of the examinations through effective teaching strategies, including metacognition. Exemplars shared and discussed will be from 'A Christmas Carol', 'Macbeth' and 'An Inspector Calls'.

The aim of this programme is to:

- Develop understanding of the mark scheme;
- Give practical and useable examples to embed within the classroom (from own teaching and exam board) focusing on a previous exam papers;
- Provide an assessment of exemplars;
- Offer teaching strategies for the classroom including metacognition and deep learning strategies
- Explore the interleaving of skills across both exam papers;
- Embedding Curriculum planning - how to cover all Literature texts during Key Stage 4.
