

Young People, Sexuality & the Digital World

For further information regarding session dates, times and costs please contact The Teaching School Office
(details can be found at the bottom of this flyer).

Target Audience

This programme has been designed for all professionals working with young people who would like to know more about young people's online behaviour and how to keep them safe online.

Outcomes

Aimed at increasing the skills and confidence of professionals working with young people and supporting them in staying safe in the digital world, 'Young People, Sexuality & the Digital World' covers the following topics:

- Increasing the knowledge of legislation and guidance relating to sexual activity online
- Including knowledge of young people's digital use including video games, sexting, pornography and social media.
- Experiencing activities and resources to use with young people in formal and informal education settings
- Discussing own values and attitudes relating to young people's sexuality in the online environment.

Facilitator

The day will be led by Jo Hinchliffe who is Project Officer for FPA delivering sex and relationships education to groups of vulnerable young people. Jo has also worked as a Project Assistant in a service delivering school and community based sexual health services. Jo is co-author of the resource book 'A pick 'n' mix of sex and relationship activities'.
